Time that speaks on its own

Hailing from a farmer's family, R J Patel established the iconic Ranjit Buildcon with an ambitious growth profile. His immense passion and able leadership enabled the infra company to scale new heights in the industry

Ranjit Buildcon Limited, got founded in 1967 under the able chairmanship of R J Patel. A profound technocrat in the field of civil engineering and fully dedicated to the profession with great passion, vision, and conviction for the profession, Patel took Ranjit Buildcon to the next level; robustly standing for a period of more than 55 years.

VISION & MISSION

Company has been aggressively committed to provide and contribute to the development of national services in the sectors of bridges (roads and rails), roads, water supply, marine, and railways (metros), and inclusive of participation in mining and building works. The company is laced with high tech cell, structural engineering department, quality assurance laboratories, work monitoring cells, and legal experts in the field of contract, law, and taxation. Ranjit Buildcon has been dealing in all sorts of contracts including Engineering Procurement Construction (EPC) contracts, Built Operate and Transfer (BOT) projects, and operation and maintenance deals.

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

The sustained growth in terms of work in hand, turnover, cash reserves, asset building, and net worth has made the company professionally strong. CARE has rated Ranjit Buildcon with an 'A', indicating 'high performance capabilities'.

STAYING AHEAD OF THE CURVE

Quality and timely assured deliverance of a project is the motto of Ranjit Buildcon. It has projects of almost worth ₹100 billion at its credits with almost ₹50 billion worth contracts in hand which is already in progress, spread across the country.

CHALLENGES

The pace of a project, quality awareness, and contractual expectations have been on the 'rise', which is quite alarming. Keeping up to the speed within 'time' has been a challenge. However, Ranjit Buildcon is strongly and swiftly moving forward with current times and is overcoming the challenges confidently.

INNOVATION

Ranjit Buildcon is compatible with fast integrated changes in the infrastructure sector. It is adopting to all new technologies to keep itself ahead of the curve and along with the changing times.

As per Patel, there has been virtually a healthy rise in the industrial growth of Gujarat post Covid

BREAKTHROUGH MOMENT

One of the breakthrough moments for such a vast business empire was handling the work force along with various project activities at various sites during the pandemic. With huge numbers of migrant labours employed at different locations, unable to move about freely, and under an upcoming techno savvy administrator, the next man in the chair to handle and breakthrough all barriers was young, ambitious, energetic, and smart—Gaurav Patel—who reset the company's pace to achieve new heights.

IN A NUTSHELL

Ranjit Buildcon truly believes in 'Walk the Talk', which is a key mandatory skill each entrepreneur has to practice inevitably. RBL is a closely knit family organisation with each member contributing at his/her level best.

Success Mantra

The company has been practicing, abiding by the principles of 'Samyaktva', that is, inducing the right perception, right knowledge, and adopting right practices. Ranjit Buildcon attributes to all its achievements to 'Samyaktva'—their success mantra
